DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Election, Thursday November 4.

For President,

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

For Vice President,

ARTHUR SWEALL

For Congress—Fourth District,

D. H. SMITH

Fifty thousand people greeted Bryan at New Albany yesterday.

John Wannamaker has contributed $10,000 to the Republican campaign fund.

The orators are abroad in the land. You can find them on every stump in old Breckinridge speaking for free silver. Grand old county, isn't she?

We are not down on the moneyed men, they are among our best friends. But what we want is for more men to have money, then we will have a better chance to get more of it.

KS Governor Kellogg, of Louisiana fame, informs the Republican managers at Washington that they had better not too sanguine over McKinley's election. He says they may find themselves fooled about the labor vote as they did four years ago.

Bryan will carry Kansas by 50,000, Kentucky by 30,000, Missouri by 50,000, Michigan by 25,000, Iowa by 30,000, Illinois by 40,000, Indiana by 40,000 and enough other States to give him 317 votes in the electoral college. It is not in the books to beat him.

McKinley said in a speech the other day that the manufacturers did not know how to plan for next year's business on account of the free silver agitation. What is to keep the manufacturer from planning just like all other people? This country doesn't belong to them.

Mr. David W. Fairleigh tells you in this issue how free silver will advance the price of farm products, and ex-Governor Thom T. Crittenden gives some information about free silver prices in Mexico. Both of these communications are good reading for the masses.

The Republicans are flocking to the Bryan standard, while in the cities there is every indication that a big majority of the labor vote will be cast for the silver president. There is nothing in the situation discouraging Every thing points to the election of Bryan.

The Republicans and Bismarcks are hell-bent to ridicule the fusion of the Democratic and Populist in this country, but the Populist favor silver at 16 to 1, and a combination was inevitable. The result will be that the country will go for Bryan and something will be accomplished, and the interests. Therefore these people have been apart when they should have voted together. Their interests are the same.

COMMONS JOHN LEWIS has recently written to the Republican headquarters at Washington that Kentucky has from fifteen to twenty-five thousand for McKinley. Mr. Lewis' estimation of the vote in this State is very wide of the mark. He had better keep his eyes on his own district before making estimates on the entire State. He hasn't got a walk over here and his friends are inclined to fight it. Let every body here for John W. in November.

BEWELEYVILLE.

Don't forget that for thirty days from the 1st day of October I have promised to offer you my entire stock at greatly reduced prices, aiming to sell at prices that will just cover cost and carriage. I have credited out an amount just about equal to my invested capital and with a nice stock of goods now on hand it is easily seen that I am bound to be in debt. My debts are all due and my creditors are demanding payment. It is with regret that I say to those who owe me that unless you pay me you will, by holding on to it, shut me out of business, hence I feel forced by self preservation to say to you that I will have to list all mine due me for collection on the 1st day of November, if not settled before that date I will from that time on require my staple goods so that you will be able to get most anything you want until the stock is run down. Don't ask for credit. G. E. DEARY.

This is a rare chance for those who pay cash or have produce to lay in their fall and winter goods even if you have to come half a day's journey to get them. The time will be out now in twenty-five days so you had better come at once. You will find it just as I say. G. E. DEARY.

Public Speaking.

Hon. W. J. Stone, ex-Congressman from the 1st district will address the citizens of Breckinridge county at Hardinsburg, Monday, Oct. 13, 1896. Let everybody bear this able champion of Democracy. Committees.

News in This Column—Miss Rose Wash-

From a Distance.

Political Matters—A. S. Johnson Makes a Speech.

Mr. Edwin Hodge, Henderson, was here last week to see his little son.

Miss Mattie and Nabel Shicklet have commenced music and are very much interested.

Miss Kate Mattingly has spent several weeks with Miss Ida Edmonds and Mrs. Chas. Coleman.

Miss Lida Haynes spent Saturday and Sunday at home. She looks well and has a nice class at Ekron.

Miss Irma Gordon, of New Albany, is a visitor of Miss Mayfield Paxon. She will not find our autumn as gay as last summer's.

Prof Burton spent Saturday in Louisville on business intent. We will have our new song books this week for our morning exercises at Brandenburg Normal.

Clinton Crutcher, of Garrett, was in last Thursday—McKinley Day but Clint don't incline that way. He expects to sell his farm soon and make a change of residence.

There is a nice, new baby at Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnson's—it is not a voter but its location can be the highest, the holiest, ministering to the needs of voters and guarding them from deception.

Miss Rose Washington spent a day or two of last week with Miss Jen. Hendricks. She is a very nice girl and a good performer and she is, as well, one of the most individually kind in a rare way this day and age.

Miss Frankie Conway, the popular teacher at Garrett, was here last Thursday to hear the Hon. J. W. Lewis speak. Frankie is the only McKinley advocate in that little town but she has enthusiasm enough to make up for it.

There was not much enthusiasm last Thursday at the McKinley flag-raising and speaking. About three or four hundred people were in town but everything was quiet. The merchants had a good day and everybody seemed to be in a good humor.

The literary and musical exercises of the Brandenburg Normal last Friday were quite interesting. Each pupil recited cheerfully to his or her part assigned and quite creditably. Next Friday night the society will hold its next meeting.

In reply to letter asking Gen. S. B. Buckner for a speech, he says, "My movements are subject to the orders of the National Campaign Committee and I cannot make the appointment." He then expresses himself as liking to be with us and we hope, yet, to have him.

What a grand gift from our Heavenly Father is a pleasant gracious address and manner. It is more to be coveted than money. Education, intellect, and good fall short if one's dearest in this great attribute. For all these can be as well as the individual can be as well as a kind, simple, a healthy, gentle, warm, and a true and sincere volunteer.

See very clearly has added to me a Senator Blackman in joint debate. The Senator argues that I will only bring to the Secretary's speech of 1878. What if the (C) could act, drive the (C) to the rear, so to speak, of the "burning" of the "inconsistency" of a strong rather than a weak on a silver thread? Each possesses a delicate mechanism of memory and logic and when manipulated in their native state will no doubt show a bewilderment of rhetorical waves for many a controversy.

The Rev. G. B. Overton, our Presiding Elder, Brother Overton was a pupil here in Prof. J. C. Cullie's school when he was the youth of his glory. He will find the old hymnial hall standing out somewhat mutilated. He will recognize a few, very few, of us—say about six of his scholars are here and those are changed from day youth to "hoary heads" in years if not disposition. Anyhow, Brother Overton will find warm hearts and hospitable homes to receive him and Mrs. Pate who preached his first sermon here last Sunday to a large, attentive congregation that will be all in the same category were dismantled and taken to what glory and prestige they are supposed to have originally possessed.

As William Jennings Bryan is suffering at the hands and from the lips of the opposite persuasion—all claiming to be followers of the pioneer standard of democracy. Will he see all in the same category were dismantled and taken to what glory and prestige they are supposed to have originally possessed.

The Hon. J. W. Lewis, nominee for re-election to Congress, spoke to a large crowd here last Thursday, mostly his Republican. He made a talk of about two hours on the money issue. He defied old Grover Cleveland for his firmness and complimented him for sending out troops to quell the Chicago riot. The appropriations for Taylor and Meade counties secured through his influence were related which he urged was more than any former Congressman had done—in fact he made a pretty good case out of his own achievements, and promised to continue the good work if returned. I endorsed every word he said.

Franklin's Common Sense Churn. P. Fraise is my agent in this city. Leave your orders with him. He will attend to them and fill them promptly. H. MARRSHAW, Agent, Breckinridge County.

Miss Lilla Clarkson returned home Monday from Elizabethtown, where she has been visiting friends and relatives for several weeks.

Rev. Lowell accompanied his younger brother, Edwin, to Louisville last Thursday, where Dr. Dugan and Brother performed a major operation on him at St. Joseph Infirmary. He is doing very nicely.

and on the financial issue but I had rather be shired up the bright side of protection, talked about extravagance, clam legislation and so on—but then when we reflect that "Money, money, money" on all sides no comment is in order. Mr. Chas. Hanford succeeded Mr. Lewis and defended himself against the attacks of the Messenger and News at Vine Grove for refusing to divide time with Gus Brown. He held it at the door of the Committee and said he would meet Gus at any time or at any place, with which he meant disloyalty and treachery threw the Messenger to the floor. Also poor editor who a little near-by—he did not collapse however but contrived it a number of "and" words that did not get out but the sarcasm towards it was withering, biting, stinging; but it is only politics at last and after the smoke and thunder of the artillery vanishes the white flag will be raised and then an armistice.

Growing Children

One-third of all the children die before they are five years old. Most of them die of some wasting disease. They grow very slowly; keep thin (flesh is fretful); food does not do them much good. You can't save them from any disease, yet they never prosper. A slight cold, or some stomach and bowel trouble takes them away again.

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites is just the remedy for growing children. It makes hard flesh; sound flesh; not soft, flabby fat. It makes strong bones, healthy nerves. It changes poor children to children rich in prosperity.

Book about it free for the asking. If you substitute for Scott's Emulsion what we know Scott's Emulsion will do. Get the genuine.

For sale by all druggists at 50c. and $1.00.
